Students can earn CPL credit for Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) coursework (EMT151 and EMT152) at Blue Mountain Community College (BMCC).

To qualify, you must be enrolled in a minimum of one (1) BMCC credit during the term in which the request for CPL is made; and meet at least one of the following criteria:

- Non-credit EMT coursework taken at BMCC and have a current EMT license from the State of Oregon.
- Equivalent coursework from another regionally accredited college/university and have a current EMT license from the State of Oregon. Official college transcript required.
- Military coursework and have a current EMT license from the State of Oregon. Official military transcript required.

To apply for credit:

1. Complete and sign form.
2. Return completed forms to any BMCC location along with:
 - a. Payment in the amount of $20 ($10 fee per course); and
 - b. Copy of your current EMT license from the State of Oregon.
 - c. Note: If you had coursework from another college or received equivalent training while in the military, you must attach your official transcript or have it sent to BMCC, Attn: Student Records, PO Box 100, Pendleton, OR 97801.

Courses will be transcribed and assigned a grade of "P".

Requests will not be processed without appropriate supporting documentation and payment of fee.
