Feves Gallery hosts pop-up gallery in Baker City

BAKER CITY, Ore. – The Betty Feves Memorial Art Gallery at Blue Mountain Community College is hosting a pop-up gallery at its Baker County Center. The exhibit features select drawings by Texas-based artist Christopher Troutman, and will be on display in Room 107 through Oct. 19. The exhibit is free and open to the public, and community members are encouraged to stop by the Baker County Center during business hours to view the artwork.

Troutman's work explores the differences and similarities between his memories of the two places he lives each year – the Midwestern United States and southern Japan. He creates large-scale, multi-sectioned drawings using charcoal and ink. His subject matter is human figures in contemporary urban settings.

Troutman received a Master of Fine Arts degree in Drawing and Painting from California State University Long Beach and a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Drawing and Painting from Bradley University in Illinois. For more information on Troutman's work, visit his website at <http://christophertroutman.weebly.com>.

The pop-up exhibit at the Baker County Center runs through Oct. 19, 2017. The building is open Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Fridays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The drawings will then travel to Pendleton where the full exhibit will be on display in the Feves Gallery from Nov. 9- Dec. 7.

For more information, contact Lori Sams, Feves Gallery Director, at (541) 278-5952. The Betty Feves Memorial Gallery at BMCC is a non-profit exhibit space connecting emerging and established artists and their work with students, staff and the general public in eastern Oregon.
