

2019 WELCOME TO THE PACK SAMPLE CLASS OFFERINGS

"Sex Drive"

Instructor: Sascha McKeon

Room: ST-200

Have you been teased for being boy/girl crazy in the past? Is it normal to have a new crush every week? How often can a person think about sex without it being considered weird? We'll discuss these questions through the context of biology. We'll laugh, in this informal spotlight on the subtle drivers of our physiology and how they can shape human behavior.

"Math for Life"

Instructor: Ann Marie Hardin

Room: E-114

Math can be fun and useful! We all use math every day, and sometimes those skills can even make things easier. Attend this class for an idea of what an applied math class at BMCC might be like. Learn some math, and have some fun!

"College Cuisine: What exactly IS in that deli corn dog and burger?"

Instructor: Matt Liscom

Room: P-132

Is that 40-cent corn dog really a deal? Is it okay to buy bulk reduced price hamburger and put it in your refrigerator for 10 days? Just how long can you leave that chicken patty on the dashboard of your car and still eat it? These are just a few actual questions we have received in the Ag Department. This class will answer these burning questions as well as provide many more survival tips for the typical college student!

"Business Style!"

Instructor: Melinda Platt

Room: M-6

Learn some cool tips to make your computer work easier, during this hands-on computer workshop.

"Day in the life of an RN "

Instructor: Jessica Humphreys

Room: HE-115

Ever wondered what it's like to be a nurse? Students in this session will learn about the role of the nurse, opportunities within the profession as well as learn how to take vital signs and work with practice manikins. Open Q&A with nurses here at BMCC will close the session.
