BMCC hires David Shellberg as next VP of Administrative Services

PENDLETON, Ore. – Blue Mountain Community College has hired David Shellberg of Boise, Idaho, as its next Vice President of Administrative Services, the position of which oversees Human Resources, Facilities and Grounds, Business and Finance, and Information Technology at the College. Shellberg will replace Tammie Parker, who retires at the end of December after four years in the role and more than 30 years at BMCC. Shellberg will begin his new role on Jan. 2, 2020.

“We are excited to bring someone with David’s skill set and experience in community college operations to Blue Mountain,” said BMCC President Dennis Bailey-Fougner.

Shellberg comes to BMCC most recently from the College of Western Idaho in Boise, where he served as Executive Vice President since 2012, where he was responsible for the daily operations and general oversight of the two-year college. Prior to that, Shellberg served as Executive Vice President of Arapahoe Community College in Littleton, Colo. For six years, and in numerous roles of increasing responsibility – including Executive Vice President – for 17 years at Lamar Community College in Lamar, Colo.

He has Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Colorado State University.

“I am very honored to be joining Blue Mountain Community College,” Shellberg said. “I would like to thank President Bailey-Fougner and everyone else that played a role in giving me this exciting opportunity. I look forward to taking all I have learned throughout my career and helping faculty, students, and staff to do great work. I am also looking forward to being a part of the BMCC community, and I am eager for the opportunity to have a role in shaping the College’s future and ensuring that Blue Mountain continues to afford its students the best educational experience that they deserve.”
