

BMCC livestock judging team places 2nd at California contest

PENDLETON, Ore. – The Blue Mountain Community College Livestock Judging team placed 2nd at the Fresno State Contest in Fresno, Calif., over the weekend out of seven participating colleges.

Lindsey Meyers was High Individual in the cattle competition, while McKayla Rookstool placed 4th in cattle and Delaney Paulus placed 2nd in the Reasons/Questions category. Overall, Shannon Tacy placed 4th, Tawnie Peeterborg placed 6th, and Mckinna Rookstool placed 8th individually.

BMCC placed just behind top winner Modesto. Other teams that competed included Reedley College, Linn-Benton Community College, College of the Sequoias, Merced College and Delta College.