Volleyball 'pink out' and barbecue to raise cancer awareness

PENDLETON, Ore. – October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month, and Blue Mountain Community College's standout volleyball team plans to make a real statement Friday during its match against Spokane with a "Pink Out." The Timberwolves are encouraging everyone who attends Friday's match at 6 p.m. in the McCrae Activity Center to wear pink to show their support for cancer awareness.

In addition, loyal supporters of the Lady Timberwolves will host a barbecue fundraiser to benefit the team from noon to 5:45 p.m. Friday at BMCC in the McCrae Activity Center Courtyard. The menu will feature Philly cheesesteak, pulled pork, chicken breast sandwiches, hamburgers and more. Prices vary.
