BMCC Clothing Closet to outfit students seeking jobs

PENDLETON, Ore. – Blue Mountain Community College provides students with the skills necessary for obtaining a job, and now the College wants to make sure students look the part when applying for or starting a new job. The BMCC Clothing Closet collects gently-used professional clothing throughout the year and then sells it for just $1 per item to students who need professional apparel to wear to an interview or new job. Without the Clothing Closet, some students wouldn't have the financial means to purchase an appropriate outfit for a job.

The BMCC chapter of the American Association for Women in Community Colleges and the BMCC student-led Business Club have partnered to collect the clothing throughout the year. On May 12 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., students will have an opportunity to come to the Clothing Closet in Morrow Hall room 206 on the Pendleton campus to purchase clothing for just $1 per item.

For more information, please contact Velda Arnaud, 541-278-5740 or varnaud@bluecc.edu.
