BMCC to host 45th annual Christmas Eve Dinner

PENDLETON, Ore. – A long-standing holiday tradition at Blue Mountain Community College will celebrate its 45th anniversary this year. The BMCC Associated Student Government invites the public to the annual BMCC Christmas Eve Dinner, which returns on Thursday, Dec. 24, from 4-6 p.m. in Pioneer Hall on the Pendleton Campus (2411 NW Carden Avenue).

The free event features a delicious ham dinner with all the trimmings, dessert and a special trip to Santa's Toy Shop. Children should make sure to get their photo and a present from Santa.

Those who need transportation or meal delivery should contact Dawn DiFuria by Monday, Dec. 21, at 541-278-5937 to make arrangements. Others may contact DiFuria with questions or if interested in making a donation towards the event.
