Lady Timberwolves basketball donate $500 to St. Anthony Cancer Care Clinic

PENDLETON, Ore. – The Blue Mountain Community College women’s basketball team raised $500 during its Feb. 19 Play4Kay “pink out” basketball game against Yakima Valley Community College, and earlier this month hand-delivered a check to the St. Anthony Hospital Cancer Care Clinic in Pendleton. The clinic provides support services to breast cancer patients.

Head Coach Adam Driver, Assistant Coach Nadia Telles, freshman guard/forward Brook Haringa and freshman guard Erin Ramsey presented the $500 check to St. Anthony Hospital Communications Director Larry Blanc.
