Community invited to soccer field dedication, program inauguration celebration Oct. 29

PENDLETON, Ore. – In honor of Blue Mountain Community College’s first-ever women’s soccer program, BMCC will host a field dedication and program inauguration ceremony on Saturday, Oct. 29, in conjunction with the team’s match against Yakima Valley Community College. The event will include a free community barbecue lunch.

The event begins at 11 a.m. with a special flag ceremony with the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation (CTUIR), introduction of Head Coach Art Mota and his team, and a dedication of the newly-renovated BMCC soccer field. The community is invited to the free event, which includes a barbecue lunch, courtesy of the BMCC Athletics Department and BMCC Foundation. Limited edition BMCC soccer scarves, t-shirts and fleece blankets will be available for purchase. The game against Yakima Valley begins at noon.

BMCC is appreciative of the generosity of local businesses and organizations that have helped to make the soccer field renovation and program a reality: Wildhorse Foundation, Pendleton Foundation Trust, Anderson Construction, McLaughlin Landscaping, Pendleton Bottling Company, Rock...In Place Inc., and the BMCC Foundation.
